

Reading Response "Tic-Tac-Toe"

Title of Book: _____

Directions:

You are required to complete three activities from the menu above for each book you read. Please record all work on notebook paper using proper school formatting learned in third grade. The activities you choose should make a row on the tic-tac-toe board. When you complete a box, you may color it in. Response to each activity completely and with specific details. Do your best work and enjoy your reading!

Remember to choose new activity boards for each of the stories you read.

If you could meet the author of your book/ story, what questions would you ask him/ her? Record at least 3 strong questions.	Compare the main character in this book to the main character in another book you have recently read. How are the characters alike/ different? Construct your own organizer to compare and contrast.	Good readers always try to visualize the events in a story as they read. Illustrate your favorite part you read today. Include details in your illustration. Use color and explain why this was your favorite part so far.
What genre is your book an example of? Tell which genre you think your book is and give supporting reasons from the text to support your answer.	Complete a summary of your story in your own words. Make sure you include the setting, main characters, and the problem/ solution. Be specific and use detailed sentences.	Think about the sequence of events in your story. Write the events in order as they occurred; remember to use order words!
What was the author's purpose for writing this book? Tell what you think it is and support your answer with specific evidence from the text (include page numbers).	Describe the main character as if you were describing a friend. What do they look like? What do you think they would like to do for fun, and why? Would you be friends with them if they were real? Why or why not?	If you were able to meet one of the main characters, whom would you choose and what would you talk about? What questions would you have for them?